

From: Daphanie M. Mullins
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/13/01 12:34pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

----- Original Message -----

From: <dixonm@pobox.com>
To: <consumer@wvnet.edu>
Sent: Tuesday, November 06, 2001 4:12 PM
Subject: West Virginia Office Of The Attorney General: Online Contact Form

> Below is the result of your feedback form. It was submitted by > (dixonm@pobox.com) on Tuesday, November 6, 2001 at 16:12:09

> -----

> -

>
> Name: Meredith Dixon

>
> phone: (304) 986-1944

>
> address: Rural Route #3, Box 85-B

>
> city: Mannington

>
> state: WV

>
> zip: 26582

>
> other: ON

>
> othertext: Microsoft case

>
> Radio1: contact_asap

>
> comments_questions: Please don't give in and accept the Justice Department's "se > tlement". I've read it all the way through; it doesn't solve anything, and the > slap on the wrist it does give expires in five years. Microsoft is both unscrup

> ulous and out > of control. I'd like to see it broken up, as the > judge originally suggested, but if that can't be > done, then at least significant sanctions should be imposed on it.

>

> You don't actually need to contact me about this matter at all -- I just wanted > to give my opinion, and I'll know your decision soon enough through the news -- > but I don't see any way to turn off the "Please Contact Me As Soon As Possible"

> button on your webform. I'm running Netscape 4.7x.
>
> -----
> -
>
> REMOTE_ADDR: 63.66.163.7